

Dave Henderson

Mike Mello expresses dissatisfaction.

Tuesday, Jan. 19, 2016

"The Best Fantasy Camps Have to Offer"

Brian Holman suffers the attack of the Walking Dead.

Team Juiced wins regular season crown

Holman placed under suicide watch

Team Juiced, under the leadership of co-managers Jose Canseco and Mike Moore, captured the top seed in the playoffs of the 2016 Oakland Athletics/Seattle Mariners Fantasy Camp Monday without even playing.

The Juicers, who were off Monday morning, relaxed and watched as the other four teams jockeyed for playoff positions.

Canseco's squad won the top seed with a 3-1 record. Shooty Babitt's Big Balls also had a 3-1 record, but were defeated by the Juicers in regular-season play.

The Balls got to 3-1 by virtue of a 15-5 win over Hitless in Seattle, managed by Keith Comstock and John Moses leaving the Hitlesses with a 2-2 record.

The Multiple Scor-gasms earned their 2-2 mark with a 18-5 win over the former Sons-a-Pitches, No-Hit-Bitches and Lollipop Guild. Shortly before the Monday morning game, manager Brian Holman changed his team's name to The Walking Dead.

When the Dead suffered yet another crushing defeat Tuesday morning, Holman spoke of finding a tall tower and was taken away.

He will be placed under heavy sedation and attended by kind and

Final Standings

Team Juiced 3-1
Big Balls 3-1
Hitless in Seattle 2-2
Multi Scor-gasms 2-2
Walking Dead 0-4

Today's Schedule

Playoffs

9:15 am

Game A

Big Balls vs.

Multiple Scor-gasms

Game B

Hitless in Seattle vs.

Walking Dead

1:30 pm

Team Juiced vs.

winner Game B

6:00 pm

Championship

Winner Game C vs. Winner

Game A

See Holman Page 2

Eddie Contreras takes a mighty cut in Tuesday morning play.

Bob Brooks of the Walking Dead lurches for the ball.

Holman . . .

caring attendants who only want the best for him. He will be returned to camp when he stops drooling.

In the meantime, his co-manager Gary Wheelock will attempt to hold things together for the Walking Dead.

So today's morning games, scheduled to start at 9:15 am, will feature the second seeded Balls versus the Multiple Scor-gasms, and third-seeded Hitless in Seattle versus the fifth-seeded Walking Dead.

The 1:30 pm game will feature Team Juiced against the winner of the Hitless/Dead contest.

Then at 6 pm, The winner of the Juiced/Hitless/Dead game will play the winner of the Balls/Scor-gasms for the camp championship.

Home Run Derby Finalists

Mike Furutani/Big Balls, 22 pts.

Steve Biggs/Team Juiced,
17 pts.

Chris Justen/ Multiple Scor-gasms, 21 pts.

Bob Christilaw/The Walking Dead, 20 pts.

Sean Christiansen/Hitless in Seattle, 21 pts.